

Mark Zahn
1983-1986

Pastor Mark Zahn was saved at a youth camp in Golden, New Mexico in 1971 at the age of 15. Sandy Zahn was saved in January of 1971 at a youth revival meeting at age 13. They met at Manzano Baptist Church in Albuquerque. They were married in August of 1976 as they attended Tennessee Temple Bible College. After finishing Bible college and seminary in 1981, the Zahn's moved with their two children (Rachel age 3 and David age 8 months) back to Albuquerque and spent 2 years as an Assistant Pastor at their home church in Albuquerque. The Zahn's then were led of the Lord to accept their first pastorate at the Highway Baptist Church (now Falcon Baptist Church) in Falcon, Colorado. Their third son, James, was born during their ministry in Falcon. The Zahn's have gone on to serve in three other churches in Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico, spanning 40 years of ministry to God's people. To God be the Glory! As well as their three children the Zahn's have been blessed with eight grandchildren.

Randy Ragsdale
1987-2002

After 15 years as Pastor at FBC (High Way Baptist) from April of 1987 to April of 2002, Pastor Ragsdale served as Pastor in Nevada and northern California. In intervening years he started and led an AWANA club. In 2019 Randy and Diane moved to Grandview, Missouri, where they both work in local school districts – Randy as a full-time school bus driver and Diane as a Special Needs teacher in an alternative school. Pastor Randy also teaches an adult Sunday School class at Grace Bible Church in Stilwell, Kansas, where the Ragsdale's youngest son, Brady, is Pastor. Randy and Diane have four adult married children and 21 grandchildren. All three sons are Pastors and their son-in-law is an Elder at Grace Bible.

Brandon Ragsdale
1987-2007

Brandon has served as an Associate Pastor at Countryside since the summer of 2018. He oversees the Roots college ministry as well as serving on the conference committee and providing leadership to the Men's ministry and The Master's Seminary-Dallas Distance Location. Brandon is a graduate (M.Div.) of The Master's Seminary in Sun Valley, California, which he completed in May, 2015. Prior to coming to Countryside, he served as a senior pastor in Kansas, as well as a student ministries pastor in churches in both Colorado and California. He loves the church and his passion is preaching and teaching the Word of God as well as shepherding the flock, particularly college students. Brandon is married to Amanda and they have seven children: Bella, Landon, Micah, Hailey, Savannah, Lawson, and Courtney. Brandon and Amanda grew up at Highway Baptist Church and later served as youth sponsors.
