

The Divine Teacher

Matthew 22:15-45

Render Unto Ceasar

Romans 13:1-7, Daniel,
John 18:33-38

Zacheus, Middle/Dark Ages,
Islamic Caliphate,
U.S. 1st Amendment

Seven Brothers-One Bride

Deuteronomy 25:5-10,
Exodus 3:1-6, Genesis 5:24

Sadducees, Levirate marriage,
Black widows, I Am

Greatest Commandment

Deuteronomy 6:5, Leviticus 19:8,
John 15:12, 13, Romans 5:8

A lawyer asks a genuine question?
Love exceeds rules.

Whose Son is Messiah?

Psalms 110:1-4, Matthew 21:1-11

Son of David & Son of God, Silence,
Seven Woes

Questions

On Palm Sunday, who did the crowds in Jerusalem celebrate?

Why did the Pharisees, Sadducees, Herodians, Scribes, and Lawyers ask Jesus questions?

How did Jesus use Scripture?

How long and how direct were the responses of Jesus?

How did Jesus treat the crowds, who heard his debates with religious leaders?

Why did Jesus issue the seven woes to the scribes, Pharisees, hypocrites, blind guides?

Are the teachings of Jesus a sign of his divinity?

Should we argue with Jesus? Should we ask questions in our prayers?

How to Teach like Jesus

----- Let your audience ____.

----- Carefully _____ the needs of your audience.

----- _____ start with Scripture.

----- Be direct and _____?

----- or _ Be _____ or _____.